Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant argues that the currently pending application satisfies the diligence and conception requirements raised by Examiner in the previous actio. However, Examiner respectfully disagrees with applicant for the following reasons:

(a) The affidavit or declaration and exhibits must clearly explain which facts or data applicant is relying on to show completion of his or her invention prior to the particular date. Vague and general statements in broad terms about what the exhibits often along with a general assertion that the exhibits describe a reduction to practice 'amounts essentially to mere pleading, unsupported by proof or a showing of facts' and, thus, does not satisfy the requirements of 37 CFR 1.131(b). In re Borkowski, 505 F.2d 713, 184 USPQ 29 (CCPA 1974). Applicant must give a clear explanation of the exhibits pointing out exactly what facts are established and relond only applicant.

(b)Boer et al was filed november 27, 2002. Applicant claims that the invention was conceived prior to October/28/2002 (there is no specific date for conception), a screen print copy that is prepared by October/28/2002. Then applicant claims that the invention was submitted to Realatk's intellectual property and legal department on December/10/2002 (after filing date of the Boer et al reference). Therefore, applicant clid not show diligence during the period of October/28/2002-November/27/2002. Thus, even though applicant was first to conceive the invention, he was second to reduce the invention to practice.
